Early Morning: Lodge Tour

If you're a big fan of Ree Drummond, you know Pawhuska is the home of shops, restaurants, and tours dedicated to the Pioneer Woman. But did you know Ree offers tours of The Lodge, which is where her Food Network shows are filmed? Just pick up a ticket at the Pioneer Woman Mercantile first thing in the morning and head out to her ranch. You might even be able to meet her dog, Henry! You can view Lodge Tour dates here. The best part is, The Lodge is located only 40 minutes away from The BarDew Valley Inn!

Before Lunch: Pioneer Woman Mercantile

As soon as you finish up at the lodge, you have to go back and visit the Pioneer Woman Mercantile. A shop, restaurant, and bakery located down the street from The Lodge. The Merc is full of beautiful home decor pieces and bakeware hand-selected by Ree, yummy comfort foods, and tons of fun for your whole family. Lunch: P-Town Pizza

Located just across the street from The Merc, P-Town Pizza is a brand new restaurant owned by none other than Ree Drummond herself. Their menu offers delicious wood-fired pizzas, wings, salads, and so much more! Their Potato and Leek pie and Blueberry Cheesecake are some of our favorites, Hours of operation are 11 AM – 9 PM Monday – Thursday, and 11 AM – 11 PM Friday and Saturday.

After Lunch: Osage Nation Museum

This is a one-stop shop for those who want to learn more about the beautiful history of the Osage people. Fun fact – Osage Nation Museum is the oldest tribally-owned museum in the US! Hours of Operation are 8:30 AM – 5 PM Tuesday – Saturday.
